President Lynn Robinson called the meeting to order with 18 members present.

Secretary's and Treasurer's Reports

Jillian Marcho read the secretary's report, and it was accepted by all members. Dody Boeglin read the treasurer's report and was accepted by all members. Dody reported that the club has $1,817.93 in the savings and $3,302.90 in checking. The Club made a net profit of $28.50 from the Wagon Ride and sale of food during the Winterfest.

Agenda

Kim Deroiser reported that the Carriage Show date has not been set yet. Sandra Day and Betty Hagler were mentions for possible driving judges. She will get back with the dates by the next meeting.

The Class List has not been done. Kim will talk to Aimee Smith about the revamping of the list and present it to the members at the next meeting.

Dr. Miles has agreed to do another Shot clinic. Jillian will speak to Dr. Miles about having the Clinic May 9 and the rain date May 16.

Club members discussed possible judges for the upcoming shows. A concern was brought up to the members about having a judge being a trainer and having their students at the shows. Members suggested having judges that are not local. The following judges were suggested by the members: Erika Sawyer, Sheri Thornton, Jennifer Grady, Jessica Smith, Sandy Oliver, and Cindy DeBeck. Jillian and Judy will check with the judges and set up the dates.

The Basket Bingo is all set up to go on March 14. Judy and Dody will be responsible for the kitchen. The Club will have beans, hot dogs, and rolls on sale. Members will bring the sweets. Destiny, Wendy, Dakota, and Brooke have volunteered to help at the Bingo. Judy will email to members about the bingo and ask for volunteers for the sweets. Volunteers need to be at the Dover Legion Hall about 10.

Judy presented to the members the NCRC Program booklet. Members agreed on having a booklet like this for the shows. Judy will bring the sponsor forms to the next meeting.

A building committee was set up which consist of Judy, Dody, Sarah, and Kim.

Instead of having a May bottle drive, the club agreed to have people drop off bottles at the shows and also to have a barrel at the Basket Bingo.

The Game Show has been rescheduled for September 27.

Judy presented to the Club the building plans that Casey Wilson has proposed. Members suggested different changes to be considered by the Building Committee. The building is estimated to cost $6,000 in materials. The Club will look into donations and possible grants. The Committee will report at the next meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Amanda Sherburne
